

Tafese Diyana

751 N Indian Creek Dr., Clarkston, GA 30021
678-598-0192 / tgutu2010@gmail.com

Summary:

Soil expert, with over 9 years of experience in farm irrigation, land use plans and environmental studies. Former agricultural consultant for the Ethiopian government. Fluent in English, Amharic and Oromo. Fully authorized to work in the US.

Skills and Software:

- Lead Soil Surveyor
- Land Degradation
- Automated Land Evaluation
- Garmin GPS
- Proven Experience Using Garden Hand Tools
- ArcGIS Software
- Remote Sensing
- Proficient in MS Office Word, Excel and PowerPoint
- Public speaking

Experience:

Your Dekalb Farmer's Market
Sales

Decatur, GA
10/16 to 03/18

- Display fruit, vegetables and other market products on the shelves for customers
- Answer questions and direct shoppers to the appropriate department.
- Follow and food regulation procedures.

Trees Atlanta

Atlanta, GA

Urban Forestry Technician
03/02/2018 to present

- To educate the society how to protect the urban forest

Oromia Works Supervision Enterprise
Farm Irrigation Consultant

Addis Ababa, Ethiopia
12/2007-06/2016

- Assessed lands degraded by erosion, deforestation, flooding and other natural disasters in Ethiopia.
- Surveyed the soil to determine reusability for the community.
- Studied the geography of hillside and flatland areas to be irrigated.
- Prepared maps for best irrigation depending on crop
- Established plan for irrigation by crop type
- Prepared, implemented and reported the Oromia Irrigation Potential Assessment project to government officials.

Education:

Mekele University, Bachelor of Science (BSc) Ethiopia Land Resource Management and Environmental Protection	Mekele, 2006
Oromia Water Works Enterprise - ArcGis Software Certificate 160-hour GIS & Remote Sensing Training	2008
Guder High School, High School Diploma Languages: English, Amharic, Afan Oromo	Guder, Ethiopia
References: Available upon request.	